

Come dressed in costume and enjoy "il Martedì Grasso", Mardi Gras, with this hilarious performance for both children and adults!

This year the Carnival play is about Pulcinella, the most popular Neapolitan carnival mask.

He is tired of his white costume, white like a mozzarella. He would like to be all colored like Arlecchino, his friend from Bergamo, a city in the north of Italy. How can we help him understand the beauty and uniqueness of his dress?

In this performance, written by Patrizia De Cillis and played by I Giullari, we'll see on the stage many others "maschere della Commedia dell'Arte".
